

LOCAL.

SATURDAY, JUNE 28, 1873.

No more rain is beginning to be needed in this section.

A review of fifty thousand soldiers took place in Vienna, on the 4th inst., in honor of the Czar.—Ec.

What an interest the Czar must take in the tiuware of his subjects!

The woman question—How shall I have my summer suit made?

The boys are happy at the near approach of vacation.

J. Felder Meyers, Esq., returned yesterday from Columbia, where he has been attending to some important business.

We regret to learn that the Hon. James L. Jamison, State Senator from this County, is lying dangerously ill at Columbia.

PUBDOCS.
Thanks to the Hons R B Elliot and A. J. Hansier for valuable public Documents.

COTTON SEED WANTED.
25 cents cash per bushel will be paid for 20 bushels of cotton seed, delivered. Apply at this office.

SEWING MACHINES.
See Mr. Simmon's advertisement of Wheeler & Wilson's celebrated Sewing Machines.

We regret to learn of the death, last week, of an infant child of our fellow townsman Mr. A. Fischer. His family have our sincere sympathy in their affliction.

HAT CLEANING.
Is there nobody who attends to this business in Orangeburg? There are lots of "Panamas" and other straw head pieces interested in this question.

DOWN, DOWN, DOWN!
Ice at one cent and a half per pound at Wahlers' Enterprise Saloon. The NEWS boys return their thanks to Mr. W. for a big lump of cologne.

THE ORIENTAL ICE CREAM SALOON.
Is announced to be opened to-day at 32 M. Cornelson and Kohn have a big joke between them. Something is in the wind—or was.

Columbia had her first melons on Wednesday. This is Saturday and we haven't seen a melon yet. The nearest we can come to it is "lemon." Very like, but we prefer the "melon."

We announce with sorrow the death, last Monday afternoon, of the infant child of our well known fellow townsman and Town Marshal, Mr. James J. Cannon. We heartily condole with Mr. Cannon and his family.

CHILDREN TO BE PITIED.
Those who have the small pox, most probably. Yet Dr. Schwabe didn't have a word to say about this class of juvenile unfortunates in his recent address at Berlin.

DIED.
Mr. F. W. Jones, the inventor of the patent Fly brush, died last Saturday night, of typhoid fever, leaving a wife and several children, with whom we profoundly sympathize in their terrible affliction.

THE NEW STREET.
Petitions in favor of a new street to connect the Five Chop Road with Market Street will be found at the store of Messrs. J. W. Patrick & Co., and at the office of this paper. Persons favoring the enterprise will please call at either place and affix their signatures.

MOSELEY & CROOK.
Cash is King. He is monarch of all he surveys, and especially is he great in the grocery line. He is great hearted and generous, using his high authority to bring about low prices. He has appointed two Viceroys for Orangeburg, and their names are Moseley & Crook. Faithfully do these sub-kings obey their instructions, convincing the people that such Royalty is the trust of Republicanism.

Cash is King and Moseley & Crook are his chief lieutenants. Great is Cash and great are Moseley & Crook! Try their Bacon and Sugar, for instance!

MRS. WILLIAM VINCE.

This estimable lady has opened a millinery store in the building recently erected by Mr. T. D. Wolfe. We wish her any amount of success not incompatible with the solvency of kind husbands and indulgent fathers. We suggest to Mrs. V. the following as a good business sign.

{ MRS. WILLIAM VINCE. }
Sub hoc signo Vince-is.

FIRST RATE SODA WATER.

If you wish this article as it ought to be, go to Dr. Oliveros. Whiskey is no where compared with the Doctor's ice cold soda. And if you want to know the best combination of flavors, take our word for it and try Raspberry with Vanilla.

When'er we want wherewith to cheer us,
We call straightway on Oli-ver-os.
From all vile drinks ye gods deliver us,
While soda is sold by Dr. O-li-ver-os.

ANOTHER WANT OF ORANGEBURG.

Orangeburg needs a plank road on Russel Street and Railroad Avenue, from Meroney's Hotel to the depot. What have our merchants and others interested to say upon the subject? We will publish with pleasure anything that anybody has to say upon either side of the question. We have taken steps to procure an estimate of the probable cost of such an improvement and hope to be able to give the figures next week.

TAXPAYERS AHOY!

Read the County Treasurers notice, by which it appears that unless returns of real and personal property are made on or before August 20th a penalty of 50 per cent will be added in every instance.

The Auditor request that tax payers be prompt in making their returns. Half the trouble in this world results from the pernicious habit of leaving every thing for the last day.

VOSE & IZLAR.

The gentlemen composing this enterprising and thoroughly responsible firm are determined to make a specialty of supplying family groceries cheap. They have superior facilities for buying in large Northern and Southern Cities at the very lowest market rates and their customers reap the benefit thereof. Let purchasers remember that only those merchants can sell cheap who can buy cheap.

We learned but recently of the death, about two weeks ago of Mr. William C. Meredith, formerly of this place. Mr. Meredith was station agent here for some twenty-five years, and upon his removal to Helena, about a year ago, left behind him many friends who will read this item with sincere regret. His wife's death preceded his own but a short time. Bereft of his long time companion, our old friend sank gently and slowly to rest. Peace to the ashes of the sturdy, good old man.

Judge Andrews and family have been residing in Columbia for some weeks. The Judge's stay there, however, is only temporary and in the interest of his flourishing paper, the Union Herald. There is hardly any business doing in the County Treasury at this season so that his presence is not require here; and even if there were any business it could be promptly and properly attended to by the thoroughly competent corps of clerks always on hand in the Treasurer's office.

We are under obligations to W. S. Ball, Esq., editor of the New North State, of Greensboro, N. C., for copies of his valuable paper containing opinions of Judge Dick in important Home-stead cases, one of which we publish on the first page of our present issue.

Our readers will perceive that Judge Dick's decision supports the opinion recently expressed by us in favor of the constitutionality of the homestead provisions of the Bankrupt law.

We shall gladly exchange with the New North State.

It is considered a glorious thing to sit under one's own fig tree. But even then a fellow has to get up and pluck the figs or go without: unless he is sufficiently accurate to be able to hold his mouth open precisely under a fig, and patient enough to wait until it ripens and drops, all of which is very fatiguing. How much better to wait until I. P. Thompson Esq., brings you a handsome plate of the delicious fruit with a note

"To the editor." That's the way we do. We like our way and we like Thompson's way, too.

T. KOHN & BROTHER.

Have made money enough by selling in large quantities at low prices, to be able to build a large store of their own, which is now in course of erection, and which will be another proof of the sure thrift and rapid growth of our good old Burg; and as they don't want to be at the trouble or expense of removing their present large stock, they are offering the same at prices which will bring tears of joy to dear ladies' eyes without wringing tears of sorrow from the pocket-books of too confiding husbands. The lament of the Irish widow is O chone!—the joyful shout of the American wife is O, Kohn!!

"ALL HANDS LEMONADE."

This is the battle cry of our friend Kortjohn; he of the wining way, the gentle but soul-seducing eye and, above all, the prophet and high priest of the low price system. In fact every body in Orangeburg is trying to under-sell every body else. But we'd like to see anybody burrow under Dick Kortjohn. We don't believe Dick can be undersold save perhaps, by an under-cellar!

But Dick couldn't survive an under cellar. The air wouldn't agree with him. No, he would then "wrap the drapery of his couch about him (the bed curtains, i. e.) and lie down to pleasant dreams" of best coffee sugar Sibs for a $, A 1. C. R. sides at 8c per lb &c and a falling market at that!

DISTRICT SCHOOL TAX.

To-day is the day set by law for considering the subject of the district school tax. It is to be hoped that the voters will take a more lively interest in the matter than has heretofore been exhibited. The subject is one of great importance, and should receive the careful consideration of all. Even a small district tax will go a great way, properly expended, in educating the young. The benefits of the same will bring an hundred fold in the future. It is a pleasing thought that the fact that many of the substantial citizens of this district have given the matter a good thinking over, and to-day we hope they may act for the best interests of the future. It is a duty they owe alike to themselves and the young generation.

Lovely weather for upper collars.

IT IS NOW SETTLED

THAT the "ENTERPRISE SALOON" conducted by J. HERMAN WAHLERS is the ONLY PLACE in Orangeburg where anything like FANCY DRINKS, or COOLING and DELICIOUS BEVERAGES are prepared, and it is very certain.

That Captain Jack and Ellen's Man

Were they here, would wonder at the delicious made in which "fire-water" can be concocted. All the wonderful Summer diguises, such as "CLARET-PUNCHES," "SHERRY-COBBLERS," "COCK-TAILS," "WHITE-LIONS," "MINT-JULIPS," "GIN-SLINGS," "BRANDY-SMASHES," "LEMONADES a la baton," "SODA-WATER avec une mouche," "SKINS," "TOD-DIES," "CROWDERS" and "olla podrida" of "STRAIGHTS."

Are to be brought to Orangeburg,

In fact are already here and HOURLY COMPOUNDED and HOURLY ENJOYED by the bon vivants and those who possess the savon vivre and a little "cherchez-le!" Those who fancy the death of the Duke of Clarence and who would like

To be Drowned in a Hogshead of Wine

Can find the MATERIALS for this glorious suicide, but would doubtless be dissuaded from such a purpose on stopping in
